

Sinclair Broadcast Group's recent actions have illustrated the dangers to localism
caused by media
consolidation.
When large companies
control the
airwaves, we get more of what's good
for the bottom line
and less of what we need for our democracy.
News about Sinclair's actions
show why we need to strengthen media
ownership rules, not
weaken them.
I strongly urge the FCC to look again at limiting media
consolidation.
As an American, I
would like to think
that our airwaves
are not corrupted.
